Faculty of Architecture, Design and Planning

Invitation to support Global Studio 2007 Johannesburg June 30-July 19

About Global Studio

Global Studio is an innovative design and planning studio spearheaded by the United Nations Millennium Project Task Force on Improving the Lives of Slum Dwellers in 2004, and developed by a group of universities. Global Studio aims to impact city building education and practice through the establishment of international, interdisciplinary, and multi-institutional partnerships to help achieve the Millennium Development Goal "ensure environmental sustainability".

Now in its third year of operation, Global Studio will build upon the program models established with Global Studio Istanbul (2005) and Global Studio Vancouver (2006) where over 200 students, academics and professionals from over 20 countries have taken part. A PowerPoint presentation covering Global Studio (2005,2006) can be found on www.theglobalstudio.com, > Johannesburg home page.

Global Studio Johannesburg

Global Studio Johannesburg will bring students, academics, and professionals in the city building professions from developing and developed country to take part in the conference, People Building Better Cities and the Global Studio, a capacity building, interdisciplinary community based participatory studio in Johannesburg. Special efforts are being made to involve participants from sub Saharan Africa.

Costs

Costs/student for four weeks including registrations, food and accommodation, and 3 day field trip are:
ZAR 11795; AUD 1765; USD 1460 + travel to Johannesburg.

We would be most grateful for your financial support.
